

David Thomas of Think Global Consulting

Who is Think Global?

Think Global is committed to global business development and networking. Based in Sydney, we have developed exceptionally strong business and social networks in the Asian region, particularly in Asia's established and emerging markets.

We help you get started, or enhance your existing offshore expansion, by providing you with:

- The tools, knowledge, ideas and research that you will need to be successful in new overseas markets.
- Access to our global networks of individuals or organisations who can provide help and support.
- The confidence, accountability and motivation to execute your vision.

Don't ever contemplate a move offshore without talking to us first!

HONG KONG STUDY TOUR

Travel to Hong Kong with Think Global for a week of research, business development, networking, cultural and educational experiences, including:

- Briefings from local centres of influence and business leaders, covering economic, business, legal and practical issues, providing opportunities for you to understand the local business environment and the key drivers that will impact the future growth of the financial services industry in Hong Kong.
- Presentations from local experts and observers on the opportunities for Australian financial service providers in Hong Kong's established and growing industry.
- Opportunities to meet, consult and socialise with our long established network of Hong Kong contacts who can provide local help, services and assistance as required.
- An itinerary that takes into account local transport and logistical challenges, and provides a sufficient amount of free time for sightseeing, exploring, shopping and cultural activities.

Network with Hong Kong business leaders

Experience Hong Kong's unique business culture

What people say about the Think Global Hong Kong Study Tour

"David managed to put all of us in front of the leading financial services providers in Hong Kong and had the amazing ability of continuing to exceed our expectations as the week progressed!"

Mark O'Toole, Godfrey Pembroke Ltd

"The trip exceeded my expectations in terms of the structure, content and organisation. We have managed not only to meet with organisations which are critical to our future success in Hong Kong but got their overwhelming support and invitation to work closely with them in the future. We also got a very clear picture of the regulatory system, the main players in the industry, what products are available, which distribution platforms are used and most importantly we learned quite a lot about our target market."

Ned Petrovic, JM Financial Group

"The week exceeded my expectations. The level and depth of knowledge that David has on Hong Kong is remarkable. He is well respected throughout the financial services industry. The quality and quantity of David's personal relationships has enabled us to fast track our business expansion into Asia. We could not have done this in the same time without his help. I would have no hesitation in recommending Think Global and David Thomas to anyone thinking of expanding their business into Asia."

Mark Falzon, MD, Ark Group

Develop your own Hong Kong contacts